Less match-day admin. More coaching clarity.

MATCHLAB handles the recording and upload workflow. Your staff and players use Veo to review the game, share feedback and prepare for the next fixture.

01

Review

Replay your team shape, transitions and set pieces. Study moments that are difficult to judge from the touchline.

02

Teach

Create clips, draw on the footage and share clear examples. Turn a coaching instruction into something players can see.

03

THE PASSING NETWORK

See how your team connects.

Explore passing connections and patterns of play. Use the picture to ask better questions about support, progression and the players linking your team together.

Add the positional picture.

Player heatmaps help you explore where a player spent time. Connect the visual patterns with the match footage and your coaching observations.

Know who opened the match.

Veo's Seen by list lets your team admin see which logged-in team members opened a recording. Follow up with players and build a regular review habit.

Applies to recordings assigned to your team. Team members can also view the list. This is a recording-view list, not a complete audit of every data access or watch duration.
